

Medicare Drug Coverage

Your Questions

Answered

Medicare starts providing insurance for prescription drugs on Jan. 1, 2006.

This guide will help you work through your options.

Anyone on Medicare can get drug coverage, regardless of income or health.

Limited income?
If you qualify for extra help, you'll pay very little.

You are not obliged to sign up.

Very high drug costs?
You'll pay only 5% after you've spent $3,600 out of pocket in any one year.

To get Medicare drug coverage, you must select one private drug plan among many offering different choices.

Got better drug coverage already?
You won't need Medicare's (but it's wise to check).
